

Francis Brabazon Intellectual Property Policy

Francis Brabazon left his entire body of works, including books and manuscripts to the Avatar's Abode Trust. These works include his poetry, ghazals, music, plays, prose and songs both published and unpublished. He left these works to the Trust so that they will be made available to followers of Meher Baba and the general public.

The Trust takes very seriously the role that it plays as custodians of this Material. Part of this role is to ensure the integrity and quality of this intellectual property for which it is now responsible.

This Intellectual Property Policy sets out the Trust's position in relation to the licensing and use of Francis' writings and other relevant material. In this policy, "Material" refers to all of Francis' work left to the Avatar's Abode Trust or managed by the Trust.

Use

Any use of the Material must be expressly authorised by the Trust in writing. The Trust will consider any requests received in accordance with the procedures set out below.

Any unauthorised use of Material will be taken seriously by the Trust and appropriate action instituted.
